EXPERIENCE

HIGHLIGHTED PERSONAL PROJECTS

Full Stack Web Development Student & Mentor Remote
09/2022 – 04/2023

Mastered intermediate and advanced topics in full-stack development (including Rails, Git, and DS&A challenges) while building multiple full-stack projects both independently and via pair-programming.

Tech event website — My first ever practical website which mimics a tech conference that is hosted remotely.

- Built with: Bootstrap, HTML and CSS.

Math magicians — This is a unique SPA that includes a calculator that can perform basic functionality. And interesting addition has been featured on the web page that includes a random quote generator.

- Built with: React and Redux

Meals API Project — This JavaScript project fetches a food meals API. It allows a user to select a particular food and give comments as well as likes.

- Built with: Javascript API functions.
